Thought for the Day

"When we have seen God
in his glory
we will also see him in his misery,
and when we have felt the ugliness of his humiliation we also will experience the beauty of his transfiguration."

— Henri Nouwen, who noted that Peter, James, and John were with Jesus not only on the mount of Transfiguration, but also in the Garden of Gethsemane.

Stewardship Corner

Stewardship—what is it? In short, it is the careful management of the gifts God has entrusted to us, gifts that we often refer to as our “Time, Talents, and Treasures”. What a privilege! And our faith benefits when we take time to consider our stewardship. (2 Corinthians 9:6-7)
This year, the stewardship team will use this area of the Chapel Chatter to call your attention to different areas of stewardship as they connect to the scripture readings for the week. We will also be putting together some opportunities to put your gifts (Time, Talents, and Treasures!) to good use. So keep checking the Chatter, the weekly emails, and social media accounts for ways to be involved!

Luke 9:36a – “And when the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone.” When Moses and Elijah appear on the mountain, they point to Jesus, they speak about Jesus and His sacrifice, and then they are happy to fade into the background. They know that we need Jesus more than anything. With our eyes focused on Him and Him alone, the rest of our lives come into focus. He is primary, all else secondary. When that order is right in our lives, things truly fall into place. Or as Jesus Himself said, “Seek first the kingdom of God and all these things will be added unto you.”
