STUDENT LEADER APPLICATION

We are looking for student leaders for next year. These are the faithful students who plan and organize our student events and activities. If you have ever been interested in planning these events, connecting with other students or inviting students to worship, then this is the job for you. We meet weekly with like minded students and carry out the mission of Martin Luther Chapel in bringing Christ, Students, and Community together. Contact Pastor Robinson for an application. Apply by April 17.
