Thought for the day

“Unbelief puts circumstances between itself and Christ, so as not to see Him...

Faith puts Christ between itself and circumstances, so that it cannot see them.”

International Ministry Opportunity for the Friendship House MSU

Conversation Partners Needed! We have international students on a waiting list for an American English speaking partner.

What you need to know: Typically, the partners meet once a week for about 60 - 90 minutes and can start out (and continue) at the Friendship House MSU and then shift to meeting at a coffeehouse, or over lunch, or at the American partner's home or church.

What you need to know to be a Conversation Partner. You already know it: English. You also have the motivation to want to help someone from another country who often feels homesick, isolated, and culturally shocked.

What is it that International partners are looking for? No matter what is discussed whether English is approached from a formal or informal teaching style, they are looking for friendship.

What do I do if I am interested? Complete an application found on our website friendshiphousemsu.global under the “Get Involved” tab or contact Dan Winter, Executive Director at 517-657-7778 or friendshiphousemsu@gmail.com.

Stewardship Corner

Stewardship—is the careful management of the gifts God has entrusted to us, gifts that we often refer to as our “Time, Talents, and Treasures”. What a privilege! And our faith benefits when we take time to consider our stewardship. (2 Corinthians 9:6-7)

Luke 9:36a – “And when the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone.” When Moses and Elijah appear on the mountain, they point to Jesus, they speak about Jesus and His sacrifice, and then they are happy to fade into the background. They know that we need Jesus more than anything. With our eyes focused on Him and Him alone, the rest of our lives come into focus. He is primary, all else secondary. When that order is right in our lives, things truly fall into place. Or as Jesus Himself said, “Seek first the kingdom of God and all these things will be added unto you.”
